Admissions Information

We are delighted you have elected to begin the enrollment process! Please carefully follow these steps to ensure a speedy and accurate process.

1. Application

Obtain application packet, include copies of requested items and submit as a complete package to the Admissions Coordinator, Tanya Cordes (806-372-2285, ext. #119).

- Enrollment Application
- Birth Certificate (state or city issued – NOT a hospital certificate)
If you do not have a state or city issued certificate, contact the birth state's Department of Vital Statistics. For persons born in Texas, you may obtain a certificate at the City of Amarillo, Vital Statistics Registrar, 509 SE 7th, Amarillo. (806)378-9344. When requesting the certificate, a photo ID must be presented. There is a fee of $24.00.
- Social Security Card (<http://www.ssa.gov/online/ss-5.html>) You are able print an application at this website, complete and take to the local Social Security Office.
- Immunization Records
Please be certain your child's immunizations are current. For an immunization schedule, please contact your health provider or see this website: <http://www.dshs.state.tx.us/immunize/school/default.shtm>
- Copies of: most recent report card, prior year report card, TAKS testing
- $50 Admissions application fee (payable to SJCA)
- Financial Agreement

If applicable, also include:

- After School Care Application (Early Education through 8th grade)
- Diagnostic Assessments (copies of special testing - i.e. learning difficulties)

2. Admission Testing

- An Admission assessment test will be scheduled once receipt of the above forms has been verified. Tests are scheduled during regular school hours and take approximately 1 hour.

3. Interview

- Upon submission of the completed application, you will be contacted to schedule a family interview. The student and custodial parent(s) / guardian are all requested to attend. Interviews are scheduled during regular school hours and are approximately 45 minutes.

4. Notification

You will be notified of your admissions standing, generally within a week of completing the family interview. Placement in a class is not reserved until final acceptance is granted and the registration fee is paid.

Our goal is to provide a complete, accurate and speedy application process. If you have questions during the enrollment process, please contact the Admissions Office (806)372-2285, ext. 119. Admission is granted based on the following criteria: date application is received, administration recommendation, and class availability. During the application process, you and/or the administration are able to terminate the process without obligation or repercussion.
